DETACHMENT OF MINNESOTA

PAID UP FOR LIFE MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM

1. Funds must be paid all at one time and in one year with a maximum of quarterly payments upon the approval of the PUFL Committee.
2. The PUFL Chairman will be appointed by the Detachment Commander for a 3 year term with the other two members on a rotating yearly basis.
3. The Department of Minnesota, American Legion will transmit dues to National, Detachment and District.
4. The dues are currently based on an average of $15.00 per year. Currently the dues that are sent into National, Detachment and District are $8.00. The remaining income will be divided equally between the Squadron and the PUFL program. The Squadron must have a current officers list turned into Department and they must be off Goose Egg in order to receive their reimbursement.
5. There are no refunds of dues at any time.
6. The Sons of The American Legion will handle the paperwork in order to keep the excess work load off of the Department staff.
7. The PUFL program will be reviewed every five years, or as needed, to evaluate the profitability and productivity.
8. PUFL members may transfer Squadrons, within Minnesota, subject to the approval of the respective Squadrons.
9. Funds to be invested in a guaranteed interest bearing account.
